

*Kassidy
Gagliardi*

Kassidy Gagliardi holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance from Montclair State University, in addition to her CTE in K-12 public school teaching. Kassidy began her early dance training in 2001 at Maxine's Dance Studio LLC under the direction of Maxine and Kimberly Chapman. In 2010, Kassidy joined the Vineland Regional Dance Company, a pre-professional dance company in Vineland NJ.

In her concert performance career, Kassidy has performed roles in works by many eminent choreographers such as Nancy Lushington, Stacey Tookey, Johnathan Phelps, and Daniel Marshall. Kassidy has studied Laban notation, improvisation, choreography, ballet, modern, and pointe.

In her more recent years, Kassidy received a job at Buena Regional High School where she instituted their first-ever dance elective class in September of 2019. While at Buena, Kassidy had the opportunity to choreograph for the High Schools' musical performance "In The Heights." Kassidy now teaches for various studios in South Jersey, and is very excited to share her knowledge and love for the arts with her students.